

C 58AD

COLUMELLA

Period of Nero

Lucius Junius Moderatus Columella, from Gades (modern Cádiz) in Spain was a retired army officer who became a practical farmer in Italy.

His 'De Re Rustica' (on household estates), in 12 books & his 'De Arboribus' constitute our more comprehensive source for Roman agricultural techniques.

58AD

1912 Dates J-BK

BOADICEA, Queen of the ICENI defeated by the Romans.

58-63 A D

1912 Dates J-BK

War with Parthians and ARMENIANS

King TIRIDATES of Armenia was forced to acknowledge supremacy of Rome.

AD58

Paul was accused of bringing a Gentile into the Temple Area, and it was only the Roman troops, spotting trouble from their vantage point of the Antonia fortress who rescued him from certain death!

Once he had declared himself to be a Roman citizen he was sent under guard to FELIX in CAESAREA. From there, after 2 years in prison, he appealed to the

to the emperor for a trial in Rome as was his right. He was despatched to Rome by a new Roman gov. FESTUS, in winter when foul weather ended in shipwreck off Malta. Paul together with LUKE (who is credited with writing Book of Acts) finally reached Italy, landing at PUTEOLI near modern Naples. They walked up the coast to Rome. Placed under house arrest

58 to 60

Chronographa

Paul's imprisonment at Caesarea took place. (58 to 60)

58-63 AD

Wars of CORBULO against VOLGESIS I of Parthia (51-78 AD) followed by further settlement

Now developed a passion for Poppaea Sabina, a lady of great beauty. She was married to MARCUS OTHO, one of his closest companions. Otho was appointed governor of LUSITANIA and Poppaea was sharing the emperor's bed. He was still married to Octavia, Claudius' daughter (although she was barren).

58

The Armenian Capital ARTAXATA was captured.

C58AD

St Paul "Letters to the Corinthians"